Storage Bench: We have a storage shed and an old equipment box used to store soccer mom chairs. We would like to replace the equipment box with a lockable storage bench that can store the chairs and can also be used for seating. We have searched the internet and have evaluated more than 20 storage benches for durability, suitability, and cost. We recommend that Lottery Funds be used to purchase the $172.41 Keter Solana 70 Gallon Storage Bench Deck.
